

The contest is organized according to the CUP system with a shortened repassage (quarter finalists will do a repassage).

The competitor in a single competition can perform only within the same years, at the same level and an absolute level.

Every age group presents a specific competitive group, in KATA team, there is only one, absolute level in every age group.

The competitors on the first level (yellow and orange belts) perform pre-amateur and amateur kate and they can repeat them in every third run (they must know at least two kata).

The competitors on the second level (green and blue belts), boys and younger cadets perform amateur and master kate and they can repeat them in every fourth run (they must know at least three kata).

The contest in kata individually (the first and second level) is done in the following way; both contesters perform in the kata at the same time red and blue), after that judges proclaim the winner.

In kata team (small boys, boys, younger cadets), one member of a kata team can be from a younger age category.

For competitors on a third level there are the following rules: small boys perform amateur and master kata, in every run a new kata, younger cadets perform master kata, and in every run in a new kata.

For the competitors on a absolute level there are the following rules: small boys perform pre-amateur and amateur kata in every run a new kata, boys perform amateur and master kata and in every run a new kata, younger cadets perform amateur and master kata, in every run a new kata.

In kata team, in categories of younger cadets in finale it is performed BUNKAI.

Kumite for boys and younger cadets last 1,5 minute and are held on the fighting field of size 6x6 m.

Kumite for cadets and juniors last 2 minutes and are held on the lighting field of size 8x8m. In kumite team all members of the team must be from an issue age group, a younger can not perform instead of an older.

The dedline for a registration is 30th April 2012. till 12 o'clock with a clear delivered legible registration with correct age groups and levels of competitors and teams to the office of Karate Federation of Vojvodina.
