1 Initial Greetings

1.1 President of the European Karate Federation

The Karate family is looking forward to the event in which Europe's future stars of the sport take the stage to show the showmanship and the impact of our modality in young ages. We all are very pleased to visit Sochi for the 45th European Junior & Cadet and 10th U21 Championships and we are confident that the anticipated tournament is set to be a resounding success.

I want to take the opportunity to express my gratitude to the Russian Karate Federation and its President Serguey Tsoy for their hard work and courage to host one of the most relevant events of the year in European Karate. Their support and collaboration have been instrumental over the years and the championships to be held in Sochi from February 2 to 4 will be a demonstration of the influence of Karate in the region.

As Karate's rising stars will showcase their abilities in Sochi, the progress of our sport will be further featured in this memorable tournament. I am sure that all the European family will enjoy an event that will once again display the greatness of our sport.

Antonio Espinós
President of the European Karate Federation

1.2. President of Russian Karate Federation

On the behalf of Russian Karate Federation and myself I would like to welcome all the participants, organizers and guests of 45th European KARATE Championships among Cadet, Junior & U21 which will be held in Sochi from the period of 2 till 4 February 2018!

I am sincerely glad and proud for the inclusion of karate in the Olympic program, and I am sure that hosting Junior Championships in the Olympic city Sochi will influence the following development of the karate in the Olympic movement. Our competition in the Olympic Palace Iceberg will discover new talented names in karate and allow young karatekas feel the real Olympic spirit!

Our country had already hosted major international karate events – European Championships in 2004 and European Championships for Regions in 2012 in Moscow, Premier League in 2013 in Tyumen and I am sure that this European Championships will be hosted at high organizational level and become actual sport celebration for participants and spectators!

For many years, Russian Karate Federation have been developing this wonderful sport among professionals and amateurs as well. Every year Russian karatekas show good performance at various international competitions, being good rivals for the world karate leaders!

Karate is a unique sport, which unites countries and nationalities. Karate language is understandable for everyone – gender, age and religion doesn't matter.

I wish everyone exciting duels and excellent mood!

Sergey Tsoy
President of the Russian Karate Federation

2 Sochi

2.1 About Sochi

Sochi is a city in Krasnodar Krai, Russia, located on the Black Sea coast in the southern part of Russia. The Greater Sochi area, which includes territories and localities subordinated to Sochi proper, has a total area of 3,526 square kilometres and sprawls for 145 kilometres (90 mi) along the shores of the Black Sea near the Caucasus Mountains. The area of the city proper is 176.77 square kilometres (68.25 sq mi). According to the 2010 Census, the city had a permanent population of 343,334, up from 328,809 recorded in the 2002 Census, making it Russia's largest resort city. Being part of the Caucasian Riviera, it is one of the very few places in Russia with a subtropical climate, with warm to hot summers and mild winters.

With the alpine and Nordic events held at the nearby ski resort of Roza Khutor in Krasnaya Polyana, Sochi hosted the XXII Olympic Winter Games and XI Paralympic Winter Games in 2014, as well as the Russian Formula 1 Grand Prix from 2014 until at least 2020. It will also be one of the host cities for the 2018 FIFA World Cup.

Sochi is unique among larger Russian cities as having some aspects of a subtropical resort. Apart from the scenic Caucasus Mountains, pebble and sand beaches, the city with its numerous and Stalinist architecture. About two million people visit Greater Sochi each summer, when the city is home to the annual film festival "Kinotavr" and a getaway for Russia's elite.

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the 2,957 square kilometers (731,000 acres) Caucasian Biosphere Reserve, lies just north from the city.
