

REFERENCES:

- The contest is organized according to the CUP system with a shortened repassage (quarter finalist will go to repassage).

- In groups of small boys, boys and younger cadets there are six classes of performing katas: E class (yellow belt), D class (orange belt), C class (green belt), B class (blue belt), A class (brown belt) and an ABSOLUTE category in katas.

- An absolute category in performing katas for younger age categories implies a competition of all qualitative and promising sportsmen. In this category only sportsmen from classes A and B can perform and at small boys and boys, sportsmen from classes A, B, C and D can perform.

- Competitors from classes E and D (yellow and orange belts) perform preamateur and amateur katas and they can repeat katas in every third round (they have to know at least two katas) and they can not repeat the same kata successively.

- Competitors from class C (green belts) perform amateur and teki katas and they can repeat katas in every fourth round (they have to know at least three katas), and they can not repeat the same kata successively.

- Competitors from class B (blue belts) perform amateur, teki and master katas, in every round a new kata, in fights for medals they can repeat the kata from elimination but not successively.

- Competitors from class A (brown belts) perform master katas, in every round a new kata, in fights for medals they can repeat the kata from elimination, but not successively.

- Competitors on an absolute level in group of younger cadets perform master katas, in every round a new kata, in fights for medals they can repeat the kata from elimination, but not successively.

- Competitors on an absolute level in group of small boys perform preamateur and amateur katas and they can repeat katas in every fourth round (they have to know at least three katas), and they can not repeat the same kata successively. Competitors on an absolute level in group of boys perform preamateur, amateur, teki and master katas, in every round a new kata, in fights for medals they can repeat the kata from elimination, but not successively.

- The contest in kata individually is done in the following way: both contestants perform in the kata at the same time (red and blue), after that judges proclaim the winner.

- Competitors in kata team in groups of small boys, boys and younger cadets can perform preamateur, amateur, teki and master katas. Competitors in kata team in group of small boys and boys can repeat katas in every fourth round (they have to know at least three katas), and they can not repeat the same kata successively. Competitors in kata team in group of younger cadets perform a new kata in every round, in fights for medals they can repeat the kata from elimination, but not successively.

- In kata team, there is only one, absolute level in every age group.

- In kata team (small boys, boys, younger cadets), one member of a kata team can be from a younger age category.

- In kata team, in categories of younger cadets in finale it is performed BUNKAI.

- Kumite for boys and younger cadets last 1,5 minute and are held on the fighting field of size 6x6m.

- In kumite team all members of the team must be from an issue age group, a younger can not perform instead of an older.

- The deadline for registration is 03rd May 2019, till 12 o'clock with a clear delivered legible registration with correct age groups and levels of competitors and teams.

- The deadline for the last correction of the registration is 06th March 2019, till 14 o'clock.

- If you don't inform us about the competitors cancellation from the competition until then, the club is obliged to pay 100% cotisation (without exceptions).

- Disrespect of the schedule increases the cotisation for 100%.

- The organizer will not accept any responsibility (in case of disrespect of a schedule, lack of a necessary documentation or a protecting equipment) and that causes consequences (prohibition of competitors performance, injuries and similar), club accept the responsibility.

- Near the battlefield on parquet there can be only coaches in a sports equipment with a very visible and prominent valid accredited cards.

- All other officers who did not contest the leadership, board members, members of expert committees, managers and quests must be placed on a specially areas and must be visibly prominent valid accreditation.

AN IMPORTANT NOTICE: The approach to the playing area can have just licensed coaches or managers with a visibly prominent accreditation and in an appropriate sports equipment.

- There is no weight tolerance.

- The competitor who is registered for a particular weight category, and who exceeds that weight, has no rights to take part in that competition and to get refund of the registration fee.

- For further information related to the competition, please ask in the office of Karate Federation of Vojvodina.
