1. WELCOME MESSAGE

1.1 Greeting from the Host Federation

As President of the French Karate Federation, it is with immense pride and anticipation that I welcome you to the 2025 edition of the Karate 1 Premier League in Paris, set to take place from January 24th to 26th. This event stands as one of the most prestigious competitions in the world of karate, attracting elite athletes, passionate fans, and the global karate community to the heart of France.

The Karate 1 Premier League has consistently showcased the finest talent the sport has to offer, with its stages around the world serving as proving grounds for athletes who embody the values of karate: respect, discipline, courage, and perseverance. Paris, with its rich sporting history and vibrant culture, offers the perfect backdrop for this international spectacle. As we welcome competitors from across the globe, we are reminded of karate's power to transcend borders, fostering unity through a shared passion for the martial art.

I would like to extend my deepest thanks to the organizing committee, volunteers, and sponsors, whose tireless efforts make this event possible. The success of the Karate 1 Premier League in Paris is a testament to their commitment, and to the support of the French karate community. I would also like to express my gratitude to the World Karate Federation for entrusting Paris with this prestigious tournament.

Finally, to the athletes, coaches, and fans, thank you for your unwavering dedication to karate. Whether you are competing, supporting, or simply enjoying the atmosphere, your passion fuels the sport's continued success. Over the coming days, we will witness extraordinary performances, moments of triumph, and displays of true sportsmanship.

Let the Karate 1 Premier League Paris 2025 be a celebration of everything that makes our sport great. I wish all competitors the best of luck, and I look forward to seeing karate at its finest in the City of Lights.

Sincerely,

Francis Didier
French Karate Federation President

2. INTRODUCTION

The Karate 1 - Premier League is the most important league event in the world of Karate. It comprises of a number of the most prominent Karate competitions and endeavours to bring together the best Karate athletes in the world in an open Championships of unprecedented scale and quality.

Initiated in 2011, the 2025 edition is formed by four events being held in the cities of Paris, Hangzhou, Cairo and Rabat thus stating Karate's impact all around the world and its global scale.

19.2 How to get to Paris

By Air:

Most international travelers arrive in Paris via Charles de Gaulle Airport (CDG) or Orly Airport (ORY). These airports have excellent connections to the city center by train, bus, or taxi.

By Train:

The Eurostar high-speed train connects Paris to major European cities, including London, Brussels, and Amsterdam, making it a convenient option for travelers coming from these destinations.

By Car:

If you're already in Europe and prefer driving, you can reach Paris by car. Be aware of parking restrictions and consider traffic conditions, especially during peak hours.

By Bus:

Several long-distance bus companies offer services to Paris from various European cities. It's usually a budget-friendly option, but the journey may take longer than by train or plane.

From Charles de Gaulle Airport (CDG) to the center of Paris

RER B Train:

The RER B train is a popular and cost-effective option. The CDGVAL shuttle train connects the airport terminals to the RER B station. From there, you can take the RER B train to various central locations in Paris, including Gare du Nord, Châtelet-Les Halles, and Saint-Michel-Notre-Dame. The journey takes approximately 30-40 minutes. Trains run regularly, typically every 10-15 minutes.

Airport Shuttle Bus:

Various shuttle bus services operate between CDG and central Paris. These buses have multiple stops in the city, including popular locations like Gare de Lyon, Porte Maillot, and the Eiffel Tower. The travel time may vary based on traffic conditions but typically takes around 45 minutes to an hour.

Taxi:

Taxis are readily available at CDG. The journey to the city center by taxi can take around 30-45 minutes, depending on traffic. Be sure to use licensed taxis and make sure the meter is running.

Private Transfer:

You can also book a private transfer in advance. This can be a more comfortable and hassle-free option, especially if you have a lot of luggage or are traveling with a group.

Ridesharing Services:

Uber and other ridesharing services are available at CDG. They offer a convenient door-to-door option to reach the city center.

From Orly to the center of Paris

Orlyval Light Rail + RER B Train:

Take the Orlyval light rail from Orly Airport to the Antony station. From Antony, transfer to the RER B train, which will take you to various central locations in Paris, including Gare du Nord, Châtelet-Les Halles, and Saint-Michel-Notre-Dame. This journey typically takes around 30-40 minutes by train.

Orlybus:

Orlybus is a dedicated shuttle bus service that connects Orly Airport to central Paris. It runs from Orly to Denfert-Rochereau station, which is well-connected to other parts of the city. The journey usually takes about 20-30 minutes.

Tramway T7 + Metro:

The T7 tram connects Orly Airport to the Villejuif - Louis Aragon metro station on Line 7. From there, you can take Line 7 of the Paris Metro to reach central locations in the city. The entire journey may take around 30-40 minutes.

Taxi:

Taxis are available at Orly Airport. The travel time by taxi to the city center typically ranges from 30 to 45 minutes, depending on traffic conditions.

Private Transfer:

Consider booking a private transfer in advance if you prefer a more comfortable and hassle-free option, especially if you have a lot of luggage or are traveling with a group.

Ridesharing Services:

Ridesharing services like Uber are also available at Orly Airport, offering a convenient door-to-door option.
