1. WELCOME MESSAGE

1.1 Greeting from the Head of the host NF

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to extend a warm welcome to all of you on behalf of the Croatian Karate Union and the Organizing Committee to the Karate-1 Youth League Poreč 2025.

As June approaches, so does my excitement for another thrilling edition of the WKF Karate-1 Youth League tournament. This annual event has become a highlight on the karate calendar, bringing together young athletes from around the world to showcase their dedication, skill, and sportsmanship.

Looking back on our journey, it is inspiring to see how this event has evolved over the years. Since our first gathering in Croatia nearly a decade ago, we have continuously worked to enhance the competition experience, maintain the highest standards, and provide an exceptional platform for young karatekas. I have no doubt that the 2025 edition will continue this tradition of excellence, thanks to the unwavering commitment of everyone involved.

This year will be another unforgettable chapter, marked by outstanding performances and remarkable achievements. I eagerly anticipate celebrating these moments with all of you in Poreč.

Warm regards,

Davor Cipek, president of the Croatian Karate Union

2. INTRODUCTION

The Karate 1 – Youth League is a competition conceived to highlight the impact of Karate in young ages.

Established under the umbrella of Karate 1 and designed to complete Karate 1-Premier League and Karate 1 - Series A, the Karate 1 - Youth League aims to become a platform for the development of youngsters in their quest to progress in the sport.

The competition was devised to respond to the increasing interest of young competitors to have more options to compete at the highest level and it puts the focus on karatekas aged 12 to 17.

The number of competitors for Kumite modality is distributed as follows:

- U21: limited to a maximum of 64 athletes per category
- Junior: limited to a maximum of 80 athletes per category
- Cadet: limited to a maximum of 80 athletes per category
- U14: limited to a maximum of 64 athletes per category

For Kata modality the number of competitors is distributed as follow:

- U21: limited to a maximum of 80 athletes per category
- Junior: limited to a maximum of 96 athletes per category
- Cadet: limited to a maximum of 96 athletes per category
- U14: limited to a maximum of 64 athletes per category

All members of WKF are permitted to participate.

The WKF Competition Rules in force will be applied.

19. CITY / COUNTRY INFORMATION

19.1 About POREČ

The City of Poreč is located on the Istrian peninsula's western coast, in Istria County, Republic of Croatia. Today's favorite tourist destination of many Croatians and Europeans is also known as a city with a thousand-year history. It had been inhabited even in the Neolithic, and the present structure is due to Romans who formed the City two thousand years ago.

At first, the City was the Roman castrum, constructed 200 years before Christ on the small peninsula, which, up until today, stayed the old town's core. The old town Poreč conserved the old street layout, so the main streets of Decumanus and Cardo Maximus are still in their original ancient form. Although the oldest fortifications have not been preserved, the City claims two medieval fortresses on the peninsula's eastern and northern side and many other significant monuments. The most notable landmark is the 6th-century Euphrasian Basilica, a real architectural treasure, which UNESCO protected in 1997 as a World Heritage Site. Moreover, in Poreč you can also find remains of the Roman forum (Marafor) with Capitoline and Neptune Temple and the Romanesque House nearby, the Church of St. Francis, a dozen gothic palaces, a tower at the entrance to the old part of town, baroque palaces, and the baroque Church of St. Mary of the Angels.

Today, the wider Poreč area has approximately 17000 inhabitants, and its municipal area covers 142 square kilometers with 37 kilometers long shoreline. Mediterranean surroundings, a gentle climate, fertile land, and lush vegetation have made Poreč unique and one of the most visited tourist destinations in Croatia. In Poreč, you can choose between as many as 21 Blue Flag beaches that guarantee a clean sea whose quality has been regularly measured and monitored for more than 25 years. Also, of many Poreč's beauties, we must highlight the Lim Bay, ideal for everyone fond of walking, biking, or hiking. The 11-kilometer-long Lim Bay is known for fish and shellfish farming, and if you decide to take a boat ride, dolphins might wish you a warm welcome to our host city.

Last but not least, years of experience in competitions and tournaments, coupled with constant investment in equipping sports facilities, have resulted in Poreč being granted the title The City of Sports. Except for its extensive sports infrastructure, Poreč boasts 34 sports clubs and an estimated 2500 active athletes of all ages.

19.2 How to get to Poreč

The City of Poreč has a favorable geographical and traffic position, making it easily accessible from all European countries. No matter which mode of transport you prefer, you will find an acceptable solution. As mentioned, Poreč is located on the western coast of the Istrian peninsula, relatively close to the Slovenian border, making it easily reachable even from other countries such as Italy, Austria, and of course, Slovenia. Further bellow you can find valuable inputs if you decide traveling by plane or by bus, but even if you are considering a car, we can guarantee that it is a very convenient choice to reach Istria. Roads in Istria are excellent. The highway, known as Istrian Ypsilon, is a modern and fast road that connects Istria with both the Italian and Slovenian border and Rijeka (Croatia) to the southeast.

Flight

There are several options if you decide to fly. The closest airport to Poreč is Pula Airport. It is a small and seasonal airport, with a couple of low-cost airlines (Germanwings, Jet2, Norwegian, Ryanair, Vueling) that connects Pula with a dozen European cities.
